(11) A Scrutiny of the list shows that the largest number of spare copies were asked for by the Rev Comr for a Cattle disease Circular & by the Secy to Govt. Local Service & Pleaders' Examns.

The former was inevitable as copies had to be distributed to patels & patwaris & the Circular in question contained instructions for their conduct.

The latter could probably have been avoided by not issuing the entire Local Examn Notfn to every one who asks for it. But the exact Notfn is not forthcoming & it is best to advise the Govt to send us specific cases as they arise.

Municipal spare copies (the next largest item) will hereafter be paid for.

The others (Circulars of Govt, Revy C.S & Ex Comr) are obviously unavoidable.

The Secretariat Notfn cited stand on a separate footing, as they are wanted merely for record in the file.

15) There is considerable force in the case put forward by the Supdt. To compel the indenti for copies less than 100 in number, is to throw needless work on the Press & cause much avoidable wear & tear to both type & machinery. It seems to me that some wholesome restriction are necessary to check the vagaries of certain offices. I think it shd be made clear to all Heads of Depts & to that indenti for less than 100 copies, the originator of the Reports ought not be sent to the Press, and the Supdt of the Press informed in his turn that abnormally large indenti may be brought to the notice of Govt as proposed.

Mysore Government Press,

Bangalore, 27th December 1918.

Dear Sir,

I beg to bring to your kind notice that the Secretariat, Heads of Departments and other officers invariably ask for the supply of spare copies of the Notifications and notices published in the Gazettes. The requisition is for such small numbers as 3 or 4 copies and it is found extremely difficult for the Press to print such a small number on the machine which involves much waste of time. I beg to suggest therefore that in the case of the Secretariat, these few copies may be got done on the Multigraph and that the other officers may have them Cyclostyled in their offices after the

On the other hand, some officers make a large demand for spare copies. They send c to the Gazette and ask for copies varying l up to 10,000 some times. I beg to state th this kind of procedure involves great loss paper, not to say loss of time on machine.

I therefore beg that order may be kindl issued to the effect that no spare copies less than fifty and more than 100 will be supplied free and if more than this number required paper for same should be supplied the department concerned.
